

ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM 2009-2010

Congregation Dor Hadash - Pittsburgh

LEARN AND LIVE, LIVE AND LEARN!

The Adult Education Committee has assembled these offerings for the coming year, based on your suggestions and expressions of interest.

Join fine teachers and your fellow congregants in studying fascinating Jewish topics Music! History! Movies! Hebrew! Stories! Mordecai Kaplan! A Guided Tour!

What more do you want? All right, they're free!! (except for the Bus, we have to rent that)

Please register now, even for courses in the Spring,

so that we can make appropriate arrangements,

at AdultEd@dorhadash.net or 412-521-5978.

SPRING TERM 2011

DOR HADASH OFFERS JEWISH ETHICS LECTURES MAY 4 & 11, 2011

Two free lectures on Jewish Ethics will be led by Daniel Leger on Wednesday evenings, May 4 and 11 from 7 - 8:30 p.m. at Tree of Life*Or L'Simcha, Wilkins and Shady Avenues.

The sessions will explore the commandments: "You shall be holy" and "Love your neighbor as yourself" focusing on the centrality of ethics in Jewish thought, and discussing topics, such as forgiveness, truth, humility and kindness. Daniel Leger, an experienced health care provider, leads the Torah study group of Congregation Dor Hadash, is a founder of The New Community Chevra Kadisha of Greater Pittsburgh and serves on the Jewish Healthcare Foundation's "Closure" program.